WESTERY LOST TO NORWICH

Result in Competitive Shoot 299 to 318—Moving Pictures
Advocated for Labor Unions—Mrs. Chas. Noyes Dies
from Blood Poisoning—Brother Arrested for Kicking
Sister—Funeral of Mrs. Luther Dock.

Deacon Ethan Wilcox, who is librarian emeritus of the Westery public library, has been engaged in Sunday school work in the town of Westery for fifty-two years, and in recognition thereof a fine portrait of Mr. Wilcox and also of the late Mrs. Wilcox, adorns the front page of the First Baptist church calendar which was distributed in the church Sunday. Mr. Wilcox became a member of the White Rock Sunday school in 1857 and served as clerk and treasurer in 1866, as superintendent in 1867, vice president in 1868-69, clerk, treasurer and vice president in 1871, and superintendent in 1872-76.

In 1877 he became a member of the First Baptist Sunday school and was elected superintendent in 1883, declining re-election the following year, and was again elected superintendent in 1890 and has served continuously since that time. He has also served as church clerk since 1883.

Mrs. Wilcox was a consistent member of the church, her father, Stephen Allen Greene, was first superintendent. She was married to Deacon Ethan Wilcox in 1868, and lived with him until her sudden death about seven months ago.

The C. B. Cottrell Sons plant and the William Clark street mill company, both located in Pawtucket, but whose owners reside on the Westery side of the Pawtucket river, has just increased the grand list of the town of Stonington materially, the exemption from taxation of additions to these big plants, granted ten years ago, having expired. The representatives of both plants have been successful in securing the assessments made, $172,000 on the Clark and $68,000 on the Cottrell additions. The total increase assessed for the year is $250,000, all but $10,000 of which was made on the two big plants. The increase assessed on the rest divided among thirty-five property holders, with Charles P. Williams in the lead. The assessors have finished the assessment feature of their work and are engaged in making up the tax book.

The final public session was held Friday. Among those who appeared were J. Irving Mason of Westery, who objected to a non-resident tax of $1,000 that had been assessed on his power boat that is in Stonington more than half the year and which the assessors declined to change. H. D. Barrows of New London, who owns the Potter block, on the Pawtucket river bridge, also made protest against the amount assessed against that building, but the assessors could see no reason for making any change.

John Michael, who figured as the witness who secured the sale in a case against seized liquor, tried in the Third district court Friday, takes exception to the report of his connection with the case. He was not in a cell at the police station when he was overheard to say that he had bought liquor in the place which he subsequently testified against, as reported, but was in the station house to qualify as bondsman for a friend who had been arrested for intoxication.

The annual meeting of the Hope Valley Baptist church society was held Friday evening and was opened with devotional services. During the year twenty-one have been added to the church, nineteen by baptism and two by letter. The total membership being 261. The membership of the Sunday school is 125, a loss of eight during the year. After the reports of the year's work, the organization made there was a business meeting of the church society. The report of the year's work was read by T. Spencer, who said that with insurance premium soon due there would be a deficit of about $300. The receipts during the year, including the cash on hand a year ago, were $1,799.22. The amount disbursed was $1,483.54. These officers were elected for the ensuing year:

Silas R. Richmond, president; William A. Watrous, vice president; Edgar T. Spencer, treasurer; Edgar A. Richmond, George W. Avery, Mrs. Lucretia E. Nichols, Mrs. Thomas W. Yeaw and Miss Mary E. Nichols, pulpits committee; Samuel R. Avery, Henry H. Cranford, William R. Greene, Miss May E. Nichols and Mrs. Frank E. Nichols, house committee; Miss Mary E. Lillibridge and Mrs. Thomas W. Yeaw, finance committee; Silas R. Richmond and Henry H. Cranford, auditors; William H. Greene, Fred A. Richmond and Edgar T. Spencer, Jr., ushers.

Mary Cassata, of Liberty street, Pawtucket, complained Sunday morning to Constable John McMahon that she had been struck and kicked by her brother John, who had also been severely scratched, her clothing over the bridge to Westery in order to escape arrest in Connecticut. Constable McMahon reported the facts to Chief Brandis and asked for the arrest of Cassata.

The chief and Policeman West found the accused in a store at the corner of Pierce and Pleasant streets and took him to the police station. After spending a short while in a cell, Cassata waived his extradition rights and went back into Connecticut with Constable McMahon and will be assigned in the town court of Stonington. Cassata has done no work for two months and had lived with his sister, who is employed in a mill. The woman's face was severely scratched by clothing was torn and she declared that her brother had kicked her several times in the abdomen.

At the annual meeting of the Westery Central Labor Union, these officers were elected: George Burdick, president; Joseph Taylor, vice president; George Lord, secretary; William Dolan, treasurer. After the election, A. E. Hoehler of Pawtucket, president of the Rhode Island state board, gave an interesting address on the benefits of organized labor. He suggested that by having a strike, the work and conditions of various trades, be given in Westery, and in that way interest in the public in matters pertaining to organized labor. There were entertaining exercises and refreshments were served.

Mrs. Abbie J. Noyes, who has been in the Rhode Island hospital for two weeks, being treated for blood poisoning, died Friday night in that institution. She was the wife of Charles Noyes and daughter of the late Henry Gavitt. She was 56 years of age and a zealous member of Grace Methodist church. Mrs. Noyes is survived by her husband, two sisters, Mrs. Susan Farber and Mrs. James Chapman, and a brother, John Gavitt, all of Westery.

The annual installation of the officers of Narragansett lodge of Odd Fellows took place Saturday evening. The interesting exercises being followed by a banquet and social session. An interesting feature of the evening was the presentation of an elegant past master's jewel to William L. Bamford, the retiring noble grand, by the new noble grand, Noble Grand Harry A. Johnson. Mr. Bamford cordially acknowledged the honor and the new noble grand, Noble Grand Harry A. Johnson, made an address to the lodge, in which he announced an increase of 25 in membership, the largest gain of any lodge in Rhode Island.

THIRD OPERATION PREVENTED

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Chicago, Ill.—"I want to tell you that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me. I was so sick that two of the best doctors in Chicago said I would die if I did not have an operation. I had already had two operations, and they wanted me to go through a third. I suffered day and night from inflammation and a small tumor, and never thought of seeing a well day again. A friend told me how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had helped her, and I tried it, and after the third bottle was cured."—Mrs. ALYENA SPERLING, 11 Langdon Street, Chicago, Ill.

If you are ill do not drag along at home or in your place of employment until an operation is necessary, but build up the feminine system, and remove the cause of those distressing aches and pains by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs.

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?
